Song by the fire:
«Our Scouts have set aflame
Some resinous wood
Listen to the soul's song
Which flutters in it.

Chorus:
Light flame rises, rises
Campfire so warm and so good
In the plain or in the meadow
Rise again and rise and rise (twice)
Campfire so warm and so good.»

The presence of fire, the flames reflected in the eyes and making them shine, the nocturnal aspect of evenings is quite exciting for young people and the feeling of belonging to a brotherly group, favour dreaming and creativity.
